Defeat Bill to Ban Union at Hospital

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A bill designed to abolish a union at the State Hospital for Nervous Diseases was defeated 17-10 in the Arkansas Senate yesterday.

Although the sponsor, Sen. Ellis Fagan, said there was no opposition to the bill, most of the opponents based their arguments on grounds it would impair rights of other employees. Others argued that the situation at the hospital had been corrected.

Three other major bills were passed with little or no opposition: A measure to add 750 miles — 10 miles in each county — to county roads to the state highway system; a bill to expand the teacher retirement system, and a proposal to make 90 per cent of funds expected from the state tax increase for classroom teachers.

The first two bills now go to the House, the latter to the governor. The State Hospital union is the only one that would have been affected immediately by Fagan's bill. Both houses previously had approved a measure by Fagan to prohibit city police unions.

"There is no useful purpose for a union at the State Hospital," said Fagan. "The primary purpose of a union is to negotiate for wages. The union at the State Hospital cannot negotiate for salaries."

Fagan said his bill had the "unanimous" backing of the State Hospital Board of Control, although Sen. J. O. Porter of Mulberry, who participated in a Legislative Council investigation, said, "not one board member has told me he wanted the union abolished. Now that the two unions have merged 90 per cent of the trouble is gone."

Sen. Robert Hays Williams of Russellville said he believed the bill was unconstitutional because it violated the "freedom-to-work" amendment, the amendment prohibiting union membership, or lack of it a condition of employment. There was little discussion of the bill by Sen. Roy Milum of Harrison to add 10 miles or roads in each county to the state system and it received a 23-4 endorsement. Milum introduced the bill for members of the Legislature had presented about 20 bills calling for the addition of various county roads to the system.

The percentage of salary a teacher contributes to the pension fund would be raised from 4 to 5 per cent. A teacher now pays this percentage on the first $3,500. The bill increases this salary figure to $5,000.

Bill estimated the measure would cost the state one million dollars for funds to match teacher contributions.

The water bill, which passed the Senate Wednesday, was recalled and the record expunged at the request of Sen. Marvin Melton of Osborn. He did so to add two amendments which define in more detail the powers of the proposed Water Conservation Commission.

Fagan introduced a measure to establish minimum wages on public construction projects. Sen. Jack Clark of Texarkana submitted a bill which would be continued on Page Three

Electrical Boundary Bill Before Senate

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The fate of House Bill 96, which would freeze the present territorial boundaries that separate utilities and electric co-operatives, apparently will be decided on the Senate floor. Most senators seem to have given up hope that the two groups will reach a compromise as they did in 1935.

There is no evidence that Gov. Orval Faubus has taken sides.

A Senate committee reported the bill out without recommendation yesterday after hearing representatives of both groups in a 3-hour meeting. The vote for the non-committal recommendation was 5-0 with several members abstaining. A motion to tag the bill "do not pass" failed on a close vote.

New Mexico's Bolack Tosses Some Party

By JOHN B. CURTIS

SANTA FE, N. M. (AP) State Rep. Tom Bolack, New Mexico's answer to Perle Mesta, tossed an informal little wild game dinner last night for an intimate gathering of three or four hundred guests.

This was a comparatively small effort for Bolack, an oil and gas man who has been known to feed as many as 2,000 persons on game that he personally has bagged. The guests were mainly Bolack's legislative colleagues and their friends.

He introduced House Bill 100 and tradition called for the dinner.

They dined on moose, caribou and white Alaskan sheep all shot in Alaska; Wyoming buffalo; Colorado elk; and Barbary sheep, deer and black bear from New Mexico.

Bolack estimated he shoots about a ton of wild game a year in the Western states and Alaska.

Bolack is 38, with hair that has been snow-white for years. Highly successful now, he has known hard times. Legend has it that he was practically broke when the San Juan gas basin on which he had staked everything finally was brought in as a rich gas producer several years ago. Now people are predicting an oil boom.

Very Exciting Running Railway in Kenya Land

By NAHAN POLOWEZY

LONDON (AP) If you want excitement, take a job running a railroad in Kenya.

There are lions to fight and elephants to dodge. Keeps a man fit all the time.

Calcutta H. Archer, publications officer of the East African Railway & Harbors, Nairobi, is reading about the troubles of railroad men in some countries. He recounted some of the difficulties in a letter to the Times.

Out of the Archives of his firm he dug up these historic messages:

From station master, Irina, to game warden, Tavro Royal National Park, November, 1954: "You required urgently at Irina station to watch and kill notorious lion hunting railway staff after 6 p.m. daily."

Then there was one on Jan. 28, 1954, from the assistant station master, Kanga, to the district traffic superintendent, Mombasa: "A wild congested with about eleven elephants."

In August, 1955, Isano flashed this message from the station

Collection of Sales Tax to Start Feb. 15

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansans will begin paying a 3 per cent sales tax Feb. 15.

Gov. Orval Faubus yesterday signed the sales tax from 2 to 3 cents on the dollar, will broaden the base of the income tax to include more taxpayers and will increase the severance tax on natural resources shipped out of Arkansas.

State Revenue Commissioner J. Orville Cheney set Feb. 15 as starting date for the sales tax increase.

Higher teacher salaries, which will take up most of the sales tax increase, will go into effect at the start of the next school year in September, Faubus said.

The governor has estimated the tax increase will bring in about 22 million extra dollars, with the sales tax boost accounting for some 18 million dollars, the income tax about 5 millions and the severance tax 1 million.

Cheney said the sales tax would be collected this way: No tax on purchases from one to 14 cents; one cent tax on purchase of 15 to 44 cents; two cents tax on purchase of 45 to 74 cents; three cents on purchase from 75 cents to $1.14.

Counties Near Hempstead in Drought Area

WASHINGTON (AP) — Eight west Arkansas counties have been declared eligible for drought assistance from the federal government. No action was taken on 17 other counties which asked for similar aid.

President Eisenhower's declaration yesterday did not specify the eligible counties.

The Agriculture Department named these counties as eligible to take part in the emergency feed grain program: Crawford, Sebastian, Scott, Polk, Sevier, Howard, Little River and Miller.

Two Arkansas congressmen from the affected districts expressed disappointment that many counties were left out.

Rep. Harris said five of the nine counties for which he sought aid became eligible.

Israeli Rejects Ike's Plea for Withdrawal

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UP) — Premier David Ben Gurion today rejected President Eisenhower's plea for an Israeli withdrawal from all Egyptian territory, an Israeli government spokesman announced in Tel Aviv.

The spokesman said the rejection was contained in a three-page letter sent today to Mr. Eisenhower. The Israeli spokesman said the situation had reached "rock bottom" and there could be no further retreat.

Ben Gurion's note was in reply to a letter sent by Mr. Eisenhower last Sunday. Informed sources in Israel described the President's note as "polite but firm" in its request that Israel should withdraw behind the 1949 armistice line.

The Israeli spokesman in Tel Aviv said guarantees of freedom of navigation in the Gulf of Aqaba and adequate safeguard against new Egyptian attacks were vital for the security of Israel.

Israeli Foreign Ministry director General Walter Eytan said Israel's determination to remain in the Gaza strip and the Aqaba gulf are unchanging, even in the face of U. N. sanctions.

Eytan's statement indicated a deadlock has been reached in U. N. withdrawal talks between secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld and Israeli Ambassador Abba S. Eban.

Eban said Israel had carried out the U. N. resolution calling for withdrawal "to all intents and purposes."

He added that Israel would welcome international observers who would then report on the situation to Hammarskjöld. He insisted, however, that Israel continues to hold occupied areas.

So long as Egypt is not willing to agree mutual and full abstention from belligerency," Eytan said, it will be impossible for the Israeli government to change its attitude.

Ben Gurion, meanwhile, met with opposition party leaders to enlist their support for possible national austerity if threats of U. N. sanctions against Israel are carried out, informed sources in Tel Aviv said.

Russia Expels Two More U. S. Militarymen

MOSCOW (AP) — A Soviet order expelling two more American military attaches will have little practical effect except as propaganda. One has already left the country and the other has transfer orders.

The Russians ordered out Marine Capt. Paul R. Uffelman, 31, Fort Wayne, Ind., and Navy Lt. William S. Lewis, Guthrie, Okla. The United States said they were attacked by a crowd in civilian clothes in Leningrad Jan. 25 and subsequently detained in a Leningrad police station despite their diplomatic immunity.

The American Embassy, where the two were assistant naval attaches, said Lewis has gone to West Germany on leave and will not return to Moscow. Uffelman has completed his duty tour here and has train reservations with his wife for Berlin Monday en route home.

The Soviet move appeared to be another retaliation for the arrest of alleged spies for Russia in the United States and the expulsion from America of Soviet diplomats accused of spying.

On Jan. 30 the Soviets expelled two other U. S. military attaches, Maj. Hubert Tansey, Alexandria, Va., and Capt. Charles Stockell, Jacksonville, Fla. They were charged with "engaging in activities incompatible with their diplomatic status."

Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko claimed Uffelman and Lewis had tried to photograph an unidentified defense building in Leningrad. He also claimed they had struck Soviet citizens who tried to question them and refused to identify themselves as Leningrad police.

U. S. Ambassador Charles E. Bohlen gave a different version in protesting the incident to the Foreign Ministry. He said Uffelman and Lewis had gone to Leningrad on a routine visit with Soviet approval and that they were accused in an "open" area where cameras are permitted.

One Russian tried to see a camera Lewis was wearing around his neck while another Russian nearby cried out: "Spies!" In an ensuing struggle other Russians tried to grab Uffelman's briefcase and Lewis' camera. A militia captain who arrived on the scene did not try to restrain the attackers and refused to recognize the Americans' diplomatic credentials. The Americans went to the police station when a Russian military lieutenant colonel threatened to use force.

Reports Seeing Something New on Mars

By RENNIE TAYLO

AP Science Reporter
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Something new on Mars — a network of irregular blue lines running through the bright red desert areas of the planet — is reported by a California astronomer.

They were seen fleetingly by Dr. Robert S. Richardson through the Mt. Wilson 60-inch telescope June 3, 1936.

Dr. Richardson noted several other details as the planet approached the earth but never saw the intriguing blue lines again. His report, one of the first to come from the 1936 observations, was published today by the Astronomical Society of the Pacific.

Mars then was 74 million miles away. It was coming toward the earth but did not reach its closest point until Sept. 7, when it was only 35,131,000 miles away.

The crooked blue lines probably are canals, Dr. Richardson said. But they are different from the long, straight lines heretofore seen by astronomers. The straight line also have been called canals but they are a matter of much speculation. They appear during the Martian spring and fade out before autumn. They can be seen only occasionally and never have been photographed clearly.

Another difference noted by Dr. Richardson was that the desert canals were "distinctly blue" and looked something like beins running through a chunk of mineral. Other observers have described the better known straight lines as merely dark or gray.

House Bill Introduced to Reduce Sales Tax in Cities Close to Border

The Phantom Sniper Caught at Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — A phantom gunman whose nighttime sniping terrorized women in suburban north Detroit since Christmas broke out in a wild shooting spree last night, binzing a trail through four communities.

Provoking the area in a car, the trigger-happy sniper wounded two girls, fired on women standing in bus stops and peppered cars and homes with .22-caliber rifle shots.

Two days after the first shot was fired, police nabbed Gary Addison Taylor, 20, of suburban Southfield Township. He was cornered after a wild hide-and-seek police car chase that led down side streets and alleys.

Oakland County Assistant Prosecutor William Lang said Taylor told him he was the phantom sniper.

Lang quoted Taylor as saying, "I just had an urge to shoot at women."

Lang said Taylor, a factory worker, appeared to be a mild-mannered, shy youth.

He was held without charge. Last night's outbreak began when Shirley Eland, 19, was phoning in to shoulder a she stepped onto the porch of her home in Bloomfield Hills about 20 miles north of Detroit. She was not seriously hurt.

Then the gunman erded through southern Oakland County toward Detroit.

A bullet was fired from a passing car at two women standing in a Royal Oak bus stop. The shot went between them, plebbing the cloth of both their coats.

Five minutes later a shot zinged through the rear of a station wagon about three blocks south of the bus stop.

In the next 30 minutes shots were reported by an 18-year-old girl who was fired on but not hit, by four home owners whose windows were shattered, and by Vincent McCarthy, whose 11-year-old daughter Carol Ann was hit. The bullet grazed her cheek as she sat on a sofa in the living room of her home.

The sniper first struck the night of Dec. 22 when he shot a girl in the back. She was not seriously injured.

Most of the targets were women.

Marine Chief Talks With Fathers

PARRIS ISLAND, S. C. (AP) — The father of a young Marine, who has accused a drill instructor of the same position in sales tax pay-mistreating him, confereed today with Brig. Gen. Wallace M. Greene Jr., who directs recruit training at this Marine base.

Nelson R. Porter of Hartford, Va., said in a brief telephone interview from Greene's office that he could not discuss details of his conference.

The public information office here said Porter also would talk to his son, 18-year-old Pvt. David Lee Porter, and possibly to Maj. Gen. Homer L. Litzenberg.

Litzenberg came to Parris Island as depot commander last year from Camp Lejeune, N. C., after a tragic night march here on which six recruits drowned. Their drill instructor was convicted of negligent homicide.

Pvt. Porter told a reporter last night that "It looks like I've started something I didn't want to start. I'm up to my neck in this thing, and I wish I weren't."

Pvt. Porter declined to elaborate on accusations he and several other recruits have made against drill instructors. He said he would not discuss the matter until he had talked with his father.

The base did not list the other recruits filing the charges, but announced that four drill instructors in Recruit Platoon 389 were relieved of instruction duty pending outcome of the probe. No charges have been filed, nor names of the instructors revealed.

Young Porter, a six-foot 200-pounder in Recruit Platoon 389, wrote a letter to his parents saying he had been struck with an iron bar and was "forced to march with sand in his mouth."

The father wrote of his son's charges to Gen. Homer L. Litzenberg, the base commander, who ordered a preliminary inquiry.

Capt. James F. Mahoney, the base public information officer, said the preliminary inquiry revealed "nothing beyond the use of the hands" by two drill instructors and that nothing had been turned up to substantiate young Porter's charge that he was struck by an iron bar.

Graduated Scale Fixes Hope's Rate at 1½%

LITTLE ROCK (AP) group of southwest Arkansas representatives today introduced a bill to give their area a reduced sales tax rate.

The present exemption enjoyed by the border city of Texarkana would be unchanged.

Outside the Texarkana city limits and within a 20-mile radius of the Texarkana post office, one-fourth the Arkansas sales tax, now 3 per cent, would apply.

Within a radius of 20 to 40 miles, one-half the Arkansas tax would apply and within a radius of 40 to 60 miles three-fourths the Arkansas tax would apply.

That would mean three-fourths the Arkansas tax would apply. That would mean three-fourths of 11 per cent, 1½ per cent, and 2½ per cent, respectively.

The bill was drawn so it apparently would apply only to the southwest Arkansas area near Texarkana which has no sales tax.

Rep. Milton Willis of Crawford introduced another bill. He said it was designed to give Van Buren the same position in sales tax pay-mistreating him as that enjoyed by Fort Smith.

Under the new 3 per cent sales tax law, a 2 per cent rate, the same as that charged in Oklahoma, apparently will apply in Fort Smith. Willis would extend this to Van Buren directly across the Arkansas River from Fort Smith.

Sen. Roy Riales of Mena yesterday introduced a bill that would remove the sales tax exemptions enjoyed by order cities — Texarkana and apparently Fort Smith — on 11 items cost less than $50.

Sen. Dan White of Fort Smith here said that Fort Smith apparently will not be affected by the recently enacted sales tax increase. The House today also passed, with little or no opposition, Senate bills to:

Set up a retirement system for state penitentiary employees. Provide for two assistant adjutant generals with rank of brigadier general in the state Military Department, one to be in charge of the Air National Guard and the other in charge of ground forces.

Re-define shoplifting and provide penalties for violations.

Best Buys in Markets for the Weekend

By The Associated Press

Lamb will force beef to share the spotlight in grocery stores across the country this week.

Leg of lamb and lamb chops will be featured, reflecting a plentiful supply of grain-fed lambs. Beef also is expected to be plentiful for some time, with the housewife having a choice of anything from chuck and steak to sirloin steaks at special prices.

Chickens are higher, in a range from 2 to 10 cents, but this is expected to be only temporary. One large chain is featuring frankfurters this week to tie in with National Franks and Kraut Week. Sauerkraut is reported in good supply.

Cabbage is an outstanding vegetable buy in areas near fields. The same goes for carrots, beets, turnips and parsnips.

Storage potatoes from last fall's eastern crops also are an outstanding buy this week. Indications are now that last summer's high prices for potatoes are not likely to be repeated.

New potatoes from Florida's winter crop already are coming to market, and are rated a good buy, along with Idaho fall potatoes.

Other good buys this week are iceberg lettuce, new cabbage from southern fields, spinach, collards, sweet potatoes, broccoli, pascal celery and peppers.

Potatoes are reported cheaper this week.
Oranges and tangerines again head the list of good buys at fruit counters. Apples and grapes are moderately priced.

Sunday School Lesson

By William E. Gilpey, D. D.

When we ask what the people of His time thought about Jesus, the reply, based on the Gospel narratives, is that it depended very much upon who the people were.

Here and there in the Gospels are brief passages that appear almost as asides. They throw much light, or perhaps what more properly might be called darkness, upon actual conditions and environment.

In the main story the portrait of Jesus is of a Master, who, by the attractiveness of His personality and teaching, drew as disciples those who left all to follow Him. We see Him thronged by the multitudes as He went about doing good and we are told that "the common people heard Him gladly" (Mark 12:37).

That record is confirmed by the various incidents of deep love and devotion; the manifest intimacy of the house hold of Mary and Martha, and the weeping of Jesus on hearing of the death of Lazarus; the emotional response of "the woman" which was a sinner" (Luke 7:37), who washed His feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head, and the many other contacts with those who perceived in Him all that He was, and became His devoted disciples through all that He did and said.

But the word that Jesus Himself pronounced to those of whom everybody spoke well (Luke 6:26) was a part of His own experience, for not all men spoke well of Him. There were some, perhaps many, whom Jesus likened to their forebears who had spoken well of false prophets, and stoned and persecuted true ones.

How deep was this hostility to Jesus on the part of many, for Jesus condemned "this generation," is indicated in the passage in Matthew 11:16-19, in which Jesus cited the comparative attitude toward Himself and toward John the Baptist.

The ignoble and perverse were not only actuated by evil minds and hearts, but they were inconsistent in their perversity.

They resented John in his rough garments and austerity, his asceticism, and probably his characterization of them as a "generation of vipers" (Matthew 3:7), declaring that he had a devil. But when Jesus came, eating and drinking, living normally, they said "Behold a man gluttonous and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners" (Matthew 11:19).

The part about Jesus being the friend of publicans... and sinners was accurate enough. A man who came to save sinners could not accomplish much if He did not go where sinners were.

Jesus was the friend of publicans and sinners as He was the friend of all, even of His enemies.

But the charge that Jesus was gluttonous and a winebibber reveals the depths to which wrong-minded men will go when they set out to vilify those whom they dislike, or who resent the character and goodness of those who make the contrast with their evil too apparent.

Followers of Jesus, and many who still follow, were to suffer the same evil thrust as their Master. In our own time noble churchmen have been thrown in prison and maltreated on false charges of treason. But as the Master gave warning. He also gave hope and encouragement (Matthew 5:11).

Mrs. Aubrey Collins Jr., were at his bedside yesterday. Mr. Alford is Mrs. Collins' Uncle.

Defeat Bill

vent an insurance agent from selling stock in his company while selling insurance. It also would prevent combination stock insurance expanses.

The House almost passed the Senate bill spelling out residence requirements under Arkansas' 3-months divorce law.

Opponents said the measure would make it possible for persons not actual residents of the state and with no intention of remaining here to get divorces.

Supporters denied this and declared only purpose of the bill was to clarify present confusion arising from court decisions.

The bill would make three months of actual residence a prerequisite for divorce and specify that residence requirements had been complied with if this was met.

Courts have held that an intent to make Arkansas a permanent home must be proven under present law—something that opponents claimed would not be required if the pending measure becomes law.

The resolution was introduced by Rep. Hardy W. Croxton of Benton County, who yesterday said many Arkansas residents have "lost faith" in the PSC. He decried a considerable portion of his prepared statement to Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. and W. R. Stephens, Little Rock financier, who now is the company's board chairman.

He reviewed an industrial rate increase granted Ark. L. by the PSC in 1955, the company's increase in earnings which he said amounted to above 10 million dollars in something more than a year, and recent controversies over preferred service contracts for industrial customers which agree to pay higher rates than customary.

Croxton said circumstances under which state employees or officials had acquired Ark. L. stock should be investigated.

Disclaiming any personal interest in the matter, Rep. Carroll C. Hollensworth of Bradley suggested the proposed investigation would be expensive and futile. He expressed confidence in members of the PSC.

Civil Rights Fight Strategy Is Planned

WASHINGTON (AP) — Southerners mounted a frontal attack on civil rights proposals at a congressional committee hearing today. It touched off a series of give-and-take exchanges with committee members.

Witnesses from Georgia and Alabama denounced the legislative proposals in such terms as "justic of Soviet-type gestapo," "political," and "a hypocritical cloak of self-righteousness."

They evoked protests from Chairman Celler (D-NY) and Rep. Keating (R-NY) of a House Judiciary subcommittee against what they called "high-handed" and "inflammatory" statements.

On the other side of the general argument, Walter Reuther, president of the Auto Workers Union, said in a statement prepared for the subcommittee that Congress should not let change what he termed its "do-nothing record" on it.

It said only Congress has failed to act at a time when states, communities and labor unions are making progress in the elimination of discriminations based on color, religion or race.

One of the Southern witnesses, Atty. Gen. Eugene Cook of Georgia, urged the subcommittee: "Enactment of this legislation would result in creation of a federal gestapo which would hold needless investigations, pry into the affairs of the states and their citizens, and intimidate a majority of our citizens solely to appease the politically powerful minority pressure groups inspired by the Communist ideologies of the police state."

Cook also said that the proposals would upset social patterns which the South is determined to maintain and added:

"All of these bills come before the Congress concealed in a hypocritical cloak of self-righteous and pious protestation against bigoted and prejudiced by those pressure groups who would have the Constitution on high whenever it suits their purpose."

Keating told Cook: "We're not talking here of social patterns or of interfering of the races socially. We're talking only of civil rights guaranteed by the Constitution."

DOROTHY DIX

Telling All Usually Creates New Problem

Dear Dorothy Dix: A few years ago I was unfaithful to my husband. My spiritual counselor advised me to keep the fact to myself. However, I told him, he works even less than usual. If I threaten to quit my job, he says he'll take the children away from me. He gets all my pay, and all he gives me is barely enough for necessities. The children need clothes, which he won't buy. I work all week, spend Saturday and Sunday doing housework, washing, ironing and cooking. All he does is watch TV and visit his mother.

MILDRED
Dear Mildred: You have already demonstrated how you take sensible advice. I would certainly advise you to keep your pay check for the necessities your husband won't buy. Further than that, I suggest that you take him to court for non-support.

Someday you'll learn that love and consideration aren't earned by making a doormat out of yourself. Respect comes first; until you win that, the gentle attributes of kindness and tenderness will not be given to you. Go back to your spiritual counselor and this time, follow his advice!

Dear Dorothy Dix: For six months I was engaged to a widower with two children. He seemed very devoted and was very anxious for me to get a wedding date. The last time I saw him was a month ago. He promised to call, but never did. He's asked for his ring back! Should I demand an explanation, or just send them back?

Puzzled
Dear Puzzled: It's extremely doubtful if an explanation would be forthcoming. Your curiosity will have to go unsatisfied — at least until a future date when the tale may be told. Return the ring and ask no questions.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'm a young teen-ager and am allowed to date if I'm home at a certain time and my parents have met the boy. We usually double date with my girl friend, whose curfew is a bit more liberal. I arrange the dates and the only difficulty comes when she suggests a soda and I'm doped home.

S.S.
Dear S.S.: It's gals like this who spoil things for law-abiding citizens like "yourself." Give her one more chance to co-operate on your curfew or — no more dates! Maybe if she has to forgo for her own beaux, she'll appreciate your good fellowship.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I am a merchant seaman and don't get to see my girl very often. Last week I tried to get her jealous by going out with someone else. She got more mad than I was and now says the other girl can write to me; she won't!

MAC
Dear Mac: Playing tricks to test a girl's love is a contemptible behavior. Since you may win your girl back, why not?

ORDINANCE NO. 25
AN ORDINANCE ESTABLISHING THE RATES TO BE CHARGED FOR THE SERVICES TO BE RENDERED BY THE PROPOSED MUNICIPAL WATERWORKS SYSTEM, AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

WHEREAS, the City of Blevins, Arkansas, now is proposing to issue and sell water revenue bonds, and in order to pay the principal and interest of said bonds it will be necessary to establish fair and reasonable rates for the services to be rendered by the municipal waterworks system; now, therefore,

BE IT ORDAINED by the City Council of the City of Blevins, Arkansas:

SECTION 1. That the following rates be hereby fixed for the services to be rendered by the municipal waterworks system, to-wit:

WATER RATES, PER MONTH
For the first 3,000 gallons or less ..... 2.60
For each additional 500 gallons or any fraction thereof .25
Minimum charge for a residential or commercial establishment ..... 2.60
Minimum charge for a school 45.00
Fire Hydrants ..... 50.00
Except for the fire hydrants, all services shall be metered, and each apartment in an apartment house shall be considered as a separate user.

Provided that when an additional school is constructed, maintained, and operated in the City of Blevins by the school district, that the additional school building may be connected to the water system from the same connection as the existing school, and there shall be no increase in the minimum monthly charge. Provided further that the charge made to the school district for furnishing water to the school or schools shall be adjusted annually so as to allow a total of 2,600 gallons to be used by the school or schools for a consideration of the sum of $34.00 annually; however, water used by the school or schools over and above the 1,050,000 gallons annually shall be charged to, and paid for by the school district at the rate of 25c for each additional 500 gallons or fraction thereof per month.

No free service will be given or permitted.

Bills will be rendered monthly, and a deposit of $7.00 will be required from each consumer. If a bill is not paid within ten days from the date of rendition, a penalty of 10% will be added, and if the bill remains unpaid for thirty days, after date of rendition, the water service may be disconnected, and a charge of $1.00 plus all delinquent service charges must be paid before the premises will be reconnected to the waterworks system.

SECTION 2. If the consumer has made a deposit of $30 prior to the beginning of construction of the system, and actually begins using water from the system at the time it is opened for use, this deposit will be refunded to the customer, after deducting therefrom a meter deposit of $7.00. The customer in lieu of the $7.00 shall be issued a receipt by the City showing that he has deposited with the City a meter deposit of $7.00 to assure the payment of his monthly water bill. Any customer making a connection to the water system after the main is laid and covered shall be required to pay a connection charge of not less than $50, to be paid prior to the time any excavating is done toward uncovering the water main in order to make the connection. Providing that no person other than the owner or owner's agent or City's bonds issued in connection with paying the cost of installing the water system, shall have a vested right to connect to the water system for a charge of $50.00, and the City may, with the consent of the holder of City's bonds, increase the connection charge at any time the cost to the City of making a connection increases. In all cases, the property owner must pay all cost on his side of the meter box.

SECTION 3. The City Council hereby finds and declares that the above rates are fair and reasonable and will produce sufficient revenue to provide for the operation and maintenance of the system and the payment of all revenue bonds and interest thereon.

SECTION 4. The City of Blevins does not have a waterworks system and the City Council hereby determines and declares that this ordinance is necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, and shall become effective without delay.

BUFFALO GRASS

By Frank Gruber

Copyright 1936 by Frank Gruber. Distributed by MCA Books, Inc.

THE STORY: Chad Morgan meets an old friend, Cass Simcoe, a Texas g'rl, in Pawnee City. She has ridden up with her father's herd and the promise of high prices for steers is to good to be true, she tells Chad.

XI
Cass started to go with him, then drew back. "Golly, this—this sweetheart of yours. I can't let her see me in these overalls. Patches and all."

"How long is it since you've worn a dress?"

"Not since I was a girl! No use a thome, I've tried on some of mother's dresses, though, hey didn't fit me too big, but I—"

"Perhaps Helen will—"

"Helen?"

"Helen Jagger?"

"Is she pretty?"

"She's the most beautiful woman in the world," said Morgan.

He led her to the hotel, into the lobby, where she again tried to pull away from him, then on behind the desk, into the office, where Helen Jagger was working.

She started to rise, sent a sharp look at Cass's face. "Wy, she's a girl!"

"Cass Simcoe," said Morgan.

"General Simcoe's daughter."

"General Simcoe?" asked Helen, puzzled.

"Late of the Confederate Army. He's brought a herd up the trail, Cass came along. I stopped at their place in Texas last fall."

A sense of strange unease settled over him as he left her in the office. He stopped in the lobby. There were chairs and even a sofa in it now, although the floors were still bare. So much mud and dust was tracked in that a carpet would have been impractical.

He stepped out upon the veranda and was about to start down the street when he sighted Joe Jagger coming out of the Longhorn Saloon, headed for the hotel. He looked around quickly, saw a guest seated on a chair at the far end of the veranda and went down to meet Jagger.

"Joe," he said, when Jagger came up, "I've been meaning to tell you. Tom Alder's in town."

Jagger grimaced. "He introduced himself to me in the Longhorn."

"He say anything more than just introduce himself?"

"He knows that we got the Confederate gold."

"He said so?" Jagger demanded sharply.

"He said we built quite a town with $25,000."

"I don't see anything wrong with that. Our creditors know by now that we didn't have any more than that when we started Pawnee City."

"It was the way he said it. He tied it in with a similar remark when I met him down in Texas—Shelby's gold having been captured by the Sixteenth Illinois Cavalry."

"Doesn't mean a thing. Everybody knows it was the Sixteenth caught up with Shelby's rear-guard. You worry too much, Chad." He suddenly smiled. "Just it about time you and Helen took a little trip."

"She's too busy."

"We're all busy," Jagger shook his head. "Beats me how she takes to this. When I went to war she was in pigstails. Now she's a woman."

"She's that," said Morgan.

"I'm around," said Morgan, "but you're always working."

"I'm always a woman," she gave him a smile. "When I'm with you, Chad, I'm glad I'm a woman. Now, clear out of here, I've work to do."

A sense of strange unease settled over him as he left her in the office. He stopped in the lobby. There were chairs and even a sofa in it now, although the floors were still bare. So much mud and dust was tracked in that a carpet would have been impractical.

Martinez Favored in Fight Tonight

NEW YORK (UP) — Featherweight Isidro Martinez of Panama makes his Madison Square debut and his second U. S. appearance tonight in a 10-rounder with Bobby Courchesne of Holyoke, Mass.

It will be televised and broadcast nationally by NBC at 10 p. m.
(EST).

"Issi," the ex-shoeshine boy who became 126-pound champion of Illinois favored a top off Courchesne, the ex-stone mason who became lightweight ruler of New England.

Martinez is favored principally because of his impressive U. S. debut at Washington, D. C., on Jan. 4, when he won an upset decision over ex-contender Ike Chestnut of New York.

Rose May Kick Off Some UA Cage Players

FAYETTEVILLE (AP) — Deploring the "off-court conduct of this year's squad," basketball Coach Glen Rose of the Arkansas Razorbacks has indicated he may revoke some scholarships if breaking of training rules continues.

Rose commented yesterday on a sports column in the University of Arkansas student newspaper, a which charged team members with "cabaretting" the night before last Saturday's game with Southern Methodist University.

SMU, the Southwest Conference leader, whipped the Razorbacks at Dallas, 69-55, after holding a 2-point edge at halftime.

"In the past I have had to drop from the team boys whose actions reflect on the school," Rose said.
"If the present off-court conduct of this year's squad persists, I will do it again. I use an honor system for training, but apparently some of the boys have been cheating."

Sports Editor Bud Jones wrote in his column in The Arkansas Traveler that "perhaps the Porkers could have played better and lasted longer against Southern Methodist University if several of the club's top players had not been out cabaretting the night before."

The Razorbacks' basketball season record is 9-7. They are in fourth place in the conference with 3-3.

Spring Hill 39 to 20 with Linda Bristow looping 29 points. Betty Harvell made 12 for Spring Hill. Tonight at 8:30, Guernsey and Blevins Junior girls will play for the championship.

Blevins Senior girls outpointed
Saratoga 61 to 33 with Louise Clark sacking 32 and Patsy Stroud 21 points. Sue Foster hit 20 for Saratoga.

Spring Hill Senior boys clobbered the Hope "B" team 72 to 35, to place themselves in the finals Saturday night at 9 p. m. Royce Townsend scored 15 and Brint Odum 11

13 and William Foster 11 for Hope.

of Blevins and Guernsey will play and the winner will meet Spring Hill Juniors in the finals Saturday tangle and the winner will play play Spring Hill Seniors in the finals Saturday night at 9 p. m. Senior girls finals will feature Guernsey vs Blevins at 7:45 Saturday night.

State Boxers Take Over at Memphis

MEMPHIS (AP) — Arkansas fighters took over the MidSouth Golden Gloves last night, winning seven titles—six of them in open divisions.

The open class winners will make up the MidSouth squad that goes to the western tournament of champions in Chicago.

The feature bout saw Billy Ray Smith, a University of Arkansas tackle, Hatten George O'Neal, a 230-pounder from Osceola, Ark., for the open heavyweight title.

O'Neal went down and out after 51 seconds of the second round when Smith smacked him with a powerful right cross to the point of the jaw.

Besides the six Arkansas fighters, the MidSouth Crew will include Sheldon Bonnet, a bantamweight from Memphis.

Closed today that the Cleveland Indians and the Philadelphia Phils are having the most trouble. Each has some 25 players unsigned.

General Manager Frank Lane commented signing Cardinal players when Stan Musial agreed to terms last week. His contract calls for a reported $8,000.

Among lagging Indians are Bob
Lemon, Early Wynn, Vic Wertz, Bobby Avila and Chico Carrasquel.
Phil's out of the fold include
Richie Ashburn, Curt Simmons, Willie Jones, Granny Hamner and Ed Kazanski.

South Carolina Star Scores 39 Points

By JOHN GRIFFIN
UP Sports Writer
'Basketball's hero today was jump-shooting Grady Wallace, who had a chance to pass both Chet (the Jet) Forte and Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain in the national scoring derby and passed it up.

The six-foot, five-inch South Carolina star needed 39 points going into last night's game against Wake Forest to pass Columbia's Forte and only 34 to pass runner-up Chamberlain of Kansas. He settled for South Carolina upset Wake Forest, 55-49, to end the Deacons' seven-game winning streak.

Wallace could have done it. At least, he had a good chance, for he already had notched 24 points with 10 minutes left in the game.

But South Carolina was out in front in the game at Columbia, S. C., and elected to play a slowdown game to preserve its lead.
Giving up his chance for the national acclaim that the No. 1 spot would have meant, Wallace took only one more shot in the game and that just three seconds before the final buzzer, tipping in a basket to make the total for the finals.
41 facts.

Wallace, a 21-year-old junior from Mary Creek, Ky., who was the nation's leading junior college scorer last year with Pineville, Ky., junior college, thus saw his scoring average from 29.6 points per game to 29.4. He stays in third place behind Forte's 30.1 and Chamberlain's 29.8.

The loss was only the second in the last 17 games for Wake Forest, the nation's 15th-ranked team which hadn't been beaten since bowling to national leader North Carolina The Deacons, led by Jim Gilley's 17 points, tallied only five baskets during the second half.

Gary Thompson, Iowa State's five-10 All-America candidate, also had a big night as he scored 31 points to pace the nation's 10th-ranked team to a 92-71 victory over Drake. The win gave Iowa State a 14-4 record.

Another All-America candid a t e,
Hot Rod Hundley of West Virginia, didn't fare so well. Hoping to put on a good performance in Madison Square Garden, Hundley was held to eight points as West Virginia downed New York U., 83-77.
Lloyd Sharrar took over the scoring role and took top honors with 26 points.

weight from New Orleans, and welterweight Gene Cartee of Sensible, Mo.

Bonnet outpointed Jerry Van-cleave of Memphis in a furious scrap; Cartee got up after a first round knockdown to win a decision over Henry Harrison of Memphis and Ouachita College.

Hope-Arkadelphia Play Tonight--Title at Stake

The Hope Bobcats and the Arkad-elphia Badgers come down to the wire tonight in their drive for the District 7W Conference Championship. The Hope cagers could wrap up the championship tonight by defeating the Badgers in Jones Field House.

The Bobcats are undefeated in their conference slate with only three games left, while the Badgers have dropped two. Arkadelphia must win tonight to keep alive their faint hopes for a conference championship. If Hope wins tonight the Bobcats will have the title nailed down as the Badgers will fall three games off the pace.

Hope and Arkadelphia have met one time this season and the Bobcats handed the Badgers one of their two conference losses. The game saw-sawed back and forth throughout with the lead changing hands seven times in the last half alone. Hope squeaked past in the final minutes by two points. The Badgers' other loss came at the hands of DeQueen by one point.

Hope slipped by DeQueen in overtime in their first meeting and broke the game wide open in their second meeting. Hope throughout the season has made a habit of winning the close ones. Arkadelphia dropped a couple of close ones and that's the difference tonight when the two clubs tangle with the championship at stake.

Cecil Kemp of Arkadelphia can field the tallest team tonight with 6 foot 4 Junior, Bruce Ingram, and 6 foot 4 Senior, Bobby Howell.
on his roster. However the club he probably will start average a little over six feet. Coach Wayne Taylor's starting five will average the same, a little over six feet. So far one of the few times this year the Bobcats probably will not enjoy a height advantage.

The Bobcats have been running hot and cold all year while the Badgers have played a pretty steady brand of ball. Hope will definitely have to have their best night tonight, because a Badget never fights harder than when his back is against the wall. And that's the situation tonight. The Badgers must have this one to stay in the conference chase and the Bobcats could take all the marbles by coming away with a victory. Game time is eight fifteen in Jones Field House.

The defending champion Hope Junior team will take on the Junior Badgers in the preliminary match John Pierces Bobkittens are a well balanced, hard scrapping outfit and look like a good bet to successfully defend their district title. The Bobkittens and Junior Badgers get together at seven o'- clock.

Clings to the road like a stripe of paint!

The '57 Chevy can give lessons on taking curves and holding the road to just about any car going.
Few cars at any price are so beautifully balanced and so smooth, sure and solid in action.

A car has to have a special kind of build and balance to keep curves under control. And nobody outdoes Chevrolet in that department! It "corners" with all the solid assurance of an honest-to-goodness sports car. Chevy doesn't throw its weight around on turns because it carries its pounds in the right places.

And if the road should turn upward, Chevy can take care of that nicely, too—with up to 245 h.p.*

Come on in and take a turn at the wheel of a new Chevrolet.

Sweet, smooth and sassy—that's Chevrolet all over. Above, you're looking at the Bel Air Sport Coupe.
